DRAWING III FIGURE
ASSIGNMENT 1
With a class partner, measure the following parts of your body and answer the following questions.
1. Top of forehead to chin_________. Top of head to chin___________________.
2. Shoulder width across the front______________.
3. Shoulder to elbow__________.
4. Elbow to middle fingertip______________.
5. Mid point of Wrist to knuckle_________. Knuckle to middle fingertip_______________.
6. Chin to Waist (navel)___________________.
7. Top of head to middle of sternum_______________.
8. Middle of sternum to groin_______________.
9. Top of leg to Mid- Knee___________________.
10. Knee to ankle___________________.
11. Back of heel to tip of large toe (bottom of foot)_______________.
12. Top of head to eyes___________________. Eyes to bottom of chin___________________.
13. Hip to hip (Front)___________________.
14. Top of head to bottom of feet_______________. Finger to finger with arms spread out___________________.
15. Outside hip to ankle___________________.

1. What body measurements are approximately the same? Can you organize into sets or pairs?

2. Where is the midpoint in the body?

3. What part of your body do your elbows align with when straight?
4. Where do your fingertips align when your arms are relaxed and at your sides?

5. How many heads tall are you?

6. What body part would be a good unit of measure to judge proportional relationships within the figure?

7. If you divided the figure into quarters from top to bottom where would the points of division be located?

8. How large are your hands in relation to your face?

Please answer on back of this page.

Keep in your anatomy notebook.